

NRA Chief Range Safety Officer Program

March 20-21, 2010

The GOAL Foundation

37 Pierce Street

Northboro, MA 01532

(508) 393-5333

NRA Chief Range Safety Officers are people who possess the knowledge, skills, and attitude essential to organizing, conducting, and supervising safe shooting activities and range operations. This course requires the NRA Range Safety Officer certifications as a prerequisite. The successful completion of this course will allow individuals to educate, train, and certify NRA Range Safety Officers.

This course does not encompass the functions and responsibilities of a Range Officer, who conducts NRA competitive shooting events as defined by Rule 11.5 of the NRA Rule Books.

The Range Safety Officer course which Chief Range Safety Officers instruct consists of:

- Range Safety Officer's roles and responsibilities
- Range standard operating procedures
- Range inspection and range rules
- Firearm stoppages and malfunctions
- Range Safety Briefings which include emergency procedures
